

Florida Trust Administration and Litigation Deadlines & Timelines

TYPE OF FILING	DEADLINES	AUTHORITY
Notice of proposed transfer of principal place of administration	60 days before initiating proposed transfer	F.S. 736.0108
Motion for Attorney's Fees	30 days after judgment	F.S. 736.0201; Fl. R. Civ. P. 1.525
Notice of Trust	Upon death of a settlor of trust described in s. 733.707(3)	F.S. 736.05055
Action contesting the validity of the trust	Probably 4 years after trust becomes revocable or 6 months after served with proper notice	F.S. 95.11(3); F.S. 95.031; F.S. 95.051  F.S. 736.0604
Notice of Resignation of Trustee	At least 30 days prior to resignation	F.S. 736.0705
Written request of eligible beneficiary to successor trustee to institute an action or file a claim against prior trustee	Within 6 months after date of the successor trustee's acceptance of the trust if notice received in writing	F.S. 736.08125
Notice of acceptance of trust	Within 60 days of acceptance	F.S. 736.0813
Notice of trust's existence, identity of settlor, right to copy of trust, right to accounting, application of fiduciary lawyer-client privilege	Within 60 days after acquiring knowledge of creation of irrevocable trust	F.S. 736.0813
Trust accounting	Annually (irrevocable trust)	F.S. 736.0813
Action seeking contribution	Within 1 year of judgment for breach of trust	F.S. 736.1002
Action for breach of trust	Probably 4 years from breach or 6 months after receipt of limitations notice or trust disclosure document, whichever is received later and outside bars on actions against trustees are 10 years to 40 years, with a possible 30 years added, depending on the beneficiary's knowledge and whether trustee concealed facts	F.S. 95.11(3); F.S. 95.031; F.S. 95.051  736.1008(2)  736.1008(6)